University of Massachusetts Boston • PEAAII Hackathon, October 2026

An AI coordinator that checks a message before acting and never spends money without a person.

The model picks checked options. One gate decides.

59 of 60 runs met the expected outcome on 6 new cases

The same loop runs a food pantry

Why it matters

Safe: every change passes one gate, and no executed action broke a rule.

Who it helps: student organizers, clubs, volunteers and pantry staff.

Easy to run: one laptop, one command, any OpenAI-compatible model or none.

Adaptive: one core runs a campus event, a skills exchange and a food pantry.
